

Monroe County Historical Society

PBS AT AMES CLAIR

October marks the release of the PBS documentary on the Mountain Music Trail. To celebrate the debut of this much anticipated documentary, PBS, the Monroe County Board of Tourism, and the Monroe County Historical Society will host a launch party at Ames Clair Hall in Union featuring a showing of the Mountain Music Trail documentary and music by The Black Mountain Bluegrass Boys.

Plan on joining us for this PBS Mountain Music Trail launching party on Wednesday, October 21st from 6 - 9pm at Ames Clair Hall.

Admission is free and everyone is welcome!

MCHS FALL FUNDRAIDER

Our annual fall fundraiser will be held Sunday, November 8th from 2 - 4pm at Salt Sulphur Springs! Enjoy hors d'oeuvres, fellowship, and the music of Roger and Leah Trent. Roger and Leah will perform their special Appalachian and Celtic music on the harp and concertina. Spend a November Sunday afternoon with friends and neighbors who care about preserving Monroe County history on November 8th at the historic Salt Sulphur Springs.

Invitations will go out the first week of October. If you don't receive yours, please call Barbara Ziegler at 304-832-6060. Thanks in advance for your support of the Monroe County Historical Society!

West Virginia History Bowl

Once again this year, the MCHS will participate in preparing James Monroe High School students for the West Virginia History Bowl. MCHS members will present questions and give answers to James Monroe students in a practice match in November before the regionals in February where they'll compete for the opportunity to go to Charleston for the championship.

After a great finish last year, James Monroe history students are aiming for the state championship this year! Go Mavs!

Ames Clair Hall...

Ready for You!

With new improvements now completed, Ames Clair Hall in Union is ready for you! With a new enlarged stage, air conditioning, and new pew upholstery in place, Ames Clair Hall is now a great venue for musical and stage performances, lectures, weddings and more. Consider historic Ames Clair Hall in Union for your next event. Call 304-772-3946 for more information and bookings.